Forwarding to Headquarters of Interrogation Results
DIE-11214

1. Forwarded herewith as Attachment A are questions to be used as an aid in the debriefing of DS-960 for the purposes outlined in reference. Forwarded under separate cover as Attachment B is a collection of AECASOWARY-1 literature for DS-960's comments. Many of the questions are general in nature, designed to draw out DS-960 and to determine his own attitudes and his knowledge and interest in the subject. The interrogator may of course use the material freely and at his own discretion. Explanation in depth of DS-960's answers by the interrogator is requested.
2. If DS-960 comments on the absence of literature from emigre groups other than AECASOWARY-1, he may be told that the literature we are showing him we know to have reached the Ukraine, but that we are interested in his reaction, as a recent resident of the Ukraine, to this and any other emigre literature which he saw or heard about in the Ukraine.

QUESTIONS FOR THE DEBRIEFING OF DS-960

1. In what sense is the Russian regime a ruling force in the Ukraine, and what are the bases of its power?
2. How far and how deep has Russification of the Ukraine gone, and what do you know about the policy of the Communist Party on this question?
3. What is the status of the Ukrainian language in the schools (seven-year schools, ten-year schools, universities and institutes)? What is the effect of the law of April 1959, by which parents are to decide what schools--Ukrainian or Russian--their children must attend?
4. How much influence or independence of action is possessed by members of the government of the Ukrainian SSR, by Ukrainian Soviet writers, by the Academy of Science and by professors and teachers?
5. What is the attitude toward the Ukrainian people and its aspirations for independence of the cultural, scientific and literary non-Party Russian elite?
6. Does Ukrainian labor have a national consciousness?
7. What is the attitude of the Ukrainian population toward the church?
8. What mood and attitude prevail among Ukrainian youth of the generation to which you belong concerning the national question and the Soviet Russian regime?
9. What mood and attitude prevail in the Komsomol of the Ukraine? What is its role today? Are there elements among Komsomol members who are critical of the regime and who are conscientious Ukrainians?
10. Do you possess any knowledge concerning the resettlement of Ukrainian youth in the virgin lands or of Ukrainian youth living outside the borders of the Ukraine? What are their mood, attitude and living conditions? Of what elements are they composed?
11. How do you explain the increase of attacks in recent times by the Soviet regime on so-called Ukrainian bourgeois nationalism, including the Ukrainian emigration and emigre personalities?
12. Why did the Soviet press indulge in such a vicious and prolonged attack against the speech in the UN by Canadian Prime Minister Diefenbaker?
13. Were there or are there any manifestations of national communism among party circles in the Ukraine?
14. What is the attitude of the Ukrainian people toward the West, the possibility of war and the liberation of former African and Asian colonies?

15. How did you or your friends in the Ukraine judge the Ukrainian emigration and its activities? What did you know about the emigration and from what sources?

16. What activity on behalf of the Ukrainian people, in your opinion, should be undertaken by the emigration and its leadership among the Western nations? What kind of work should be done by the emigration in the Ukraine (radio, books, newspapers)?

17. What are the realistic possibilities for contacts by the emigration with the Ukraine, to the people as a whole and to groups or individuals? Who opposes the regime and would accept such contact?

18. What are such opposition groups or individuals lacking that could promote or improve their opposition? What help could be given by the emigration and its political leadership?

19. What program and what goals do such groups opposing the regime have? What is the composition of such opposition groups and what are the manifestations of their activity?

20. What is known to you about the clandestine revolutionary struggle of the UPA and OUN in the 1940's? What is your and your friends' opinion and analysis of this struggle?

21. Would you be willing to express your opinion on forms of the contemporary struggle or opposition to a larger audience?

22. Would you be willing to write in the future a series of articles or a book expressing your observations regarding the nationality question in the USSR and the problem of the Ukraine in particular?

23. Would you like to stay abroad permanently and, in addition to your professional work, engage in political activity on behalf of the Ukrainian people?

24. After having read the attached literature, please express your opinion about it in writing, particularly concerning the political program.
